More about the home screen

If you click here you can find out more about the Author's Corner latest addition.

The green means how many books are in. The red means how many are out.

The icon on left let's you listen to the author talk about their book. The icon on the right shows a floor plan where to find the book.

This icon allows you to reserve the book. The middle icon allows you to write a review. The last icon allows you to add it to your stuff.

Book of the Week

The screenshot shows a library website interface with a dark blue header. The main navigation bar includes 'Home', 'Search', 'My Stuff', 'My Reviews', and 'My Reservations'. The 'Book of the Week' section is highlighted in a light blue box, featuring the book 'Edexcel Functional Skills English Level 1' by Clare Constant. A callout box with a pink arrow points to a smaller version of the book cover in the 'Book of the Week' section on the right, with the text: 'If you click here you can find out more information about book of the week.' Other sections include 'My Account' for Jordan Williams, 'Author's Corner' with a 'Latest Addition' 'After' by Morris Gleitzman, 'Returns Trolley' with items like 'Advanced Early Years Care And Education' and 'Dell Student Loan Laptop', and a 'News' section with items like 'Engaging Quick Reads!!!!' and 'No Smoking Day 9 March 2016'. At the bottom, there is a 'Latest Reviews' section with several book covers and star ratings.

If you click here you can find out more information about book of the week.

The Returns Trolley

The screenshot shows the Edexcel eLibrary Home page. At the top, there is a search bar and navigation tabs for Home, Search, My Stuff, My Reviews, and My Reservations. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- My Account: Jordan Williams, Overdue: 0, Current Loans: 0, Past Loans: 1, Balance: -0.20. Includes a Log Off button and a Change Password link.
- Author's Corner: Latest Addition: After by Gleitzman, Morris.
- Who Next?: A section for book recommendations featuring Darren Shan by Douglas Keller.
- Latest Reviews: A row of book covers with star ratings, including Edexcel Functional Skills English Level 1.
- Returns Trolley (Central): A large section for the book Pop Art Portraits by Moorhouse, Paul. It includes a book cover, a description, and a star rating of 1. Below the description are icons for Cloud, Top Ten, New Arrivals, and Channels.
- Returns Trolley (Right): A smaller version of the Pop Art Portraits book cover.
- Book of the Week: Edexcel Functional Skills by Constant, Clare.
- News: A list of news items including "Engaging Quick Reads!!!!", "No Smoking Day 9 March 2016", "Learning Centre App - Video Tour!!!!", "World Book Day!!! - 3/3/16 - Win a £10 Amazon Voucher!!!", and "Student Booster Training - Recommended Books!!!!".

How the search menu works

The screenshot shows the 'Views - Search' interface. At the top, there is a search bar and navigation tabs: Home, Search, My Stuff (with a '2' badge), My Reviews (with a '0' badge), My Reservations (with a '0' badge), and Results. Below these are four view options: Views (selected), Picture, A to Z, and Advanced. The main content area displays five search filters: All Resources, ClickView, eBooks, eBooks OVERDRIVE, and Fact File. Callout boxes provide details for each filter: 'All Resources' allows searching all resources; 'ClickView' is for ClickView items; 'eBooks' and 'eBooks OVERDRIVE' are for eBooks; and 'Fact File' is for online fact files. A separate callout points to the 'Advanced' view option, stating it changes the search method for books.

Click on any of the four icons changes the way you can search for books.

Here you can search all the resources.

Here you can only search for ClickView items.

Here you can only search for eBooks.

How My Stuff works

The screenshot shows the 'My Stuff' page on the eCatalogue. At the top, there's a search bar and navigation tabs for Home, Search, My Stuff (with a '2' icon), My Reviews (with a '0' icon), My Reservations (with a '0' icon), and Results. Below the navigation, there are two book covers: 'POPARTPORTRAITS' by Moorhouse, Paul and 'After' by Morris Gleitzman. Under the covers are three icons: a checkmark, a person, and a trash can. A text box explains these icons: 'These icons lets you reserve a book, write a review, and delete this item from your stuff.' Below the covers, the 'Pop Art Portraits' book is selected, showing its details, summary, and linked items. The details section includes a table with columns for field, value, and quantity. The summary section contains text about the book's content. The linked items section has a green link icon and text: 'Show any resources that have been linked to this one, for example web sites or pictures etc.' The read reviews section has a book icon and text: 'Read reviews written by other students about this resource.' The 'What have other people read?' section has a question mark icon and text: 'See what other resources students who read this resource have borrowed.' At the bottom right, there are two circular icons: a green one with '0' and a red one with '1'. A text box explains these: 'Here it tells you if they have a book in or out of the library. Green is for in and red is for out.'

Summary

The book examines these artists' shared engagement with depicting the famous, using images taken from advertising, pop music, the cinema and the press. It demonstrates how Pop Art shattered the conventions of portraiture, creating a new genre of fantasy portraits that repositioned popular culture as art. Pop Art defined the look of the 1960s. Blurring the boundaries between high' and 'low' culture was seen as
