

CAN YOU WRITE A SPINE-CHILLING SAGA?

Use atmosphere, tension and suspense to grip the reader. But, there's an added challenge, can you write your story using up to 100 words?

PUPIL ENTRY FORM (PLEASE WRITE IN BLOCK CAPITALS)

Name: Surname

Class: Age

Home Address:

..... Postcode

School Name:

School Address:

..... Postcode

Title of Mini Saga

SPINE-CHILLERS

WHAT LURKS IN YOUR IMAGINATION?

THE RAMBLER

Fog was creeping in, I wouldn't make it back before dark. I saw an old church. I'll wait there and call Tom, I thought. Fog weaved around weather-beaten tombs. I shivered. I crept between crumbling gravestones, heading for the church. The door latch was rusty but unlocked. I entered and shut the door behind me. 'Hello?' No answer. I called Tom. 'I'll be there in 20, Liz!' he said as I sat on a dusty pew. Moonlight cast dancing shadows through stained glass windows. Bang! 'Tom?' The shadows, still moving, grew bigger. A cold hand touched my shoulder. 'Tom?' ...

